Meeting Summary

This meeting of the Kansas City Section of the American Planning Association was an informal gathering to mark the end of the year and look forward to 2015.

This was also an opportunity to thank outgoing Board members and welcome new Board members, including those with new positions. The changes are as follows:

Outgoing Board Members

- Diane Binckley – President (will remain on Board as Past President)
- Ryan McKay – Kansas Chapter Representative
- Doug Hermes – Missouri Chapter Representative
- Shannon Jaax – Past President
- Kathy Kem – Treasurer

Incoming Board Members

- Jim Potter – President (served as President-Elect in 2013-2014 term)
- Corey Fischer – President-Elect
- Ashley Winchell – Missouri Chapter Representative
- Victor Burks – Kansas Chapter Representative
- Joe Rexwinkle – Treasurer (serving remainder of 2014-2015 term)

Priorities and major events for 2015 were outlined, including the Quad State Conference that is planned for October of 2015. The next year will also feature another annual planning celebration in February, participation in Design Week in March as well as a number of other events and webinars throughout the year. KCAPA also continues its association with the Center for Architecture and Design, which presents both opportunities and challenges.

Next Meeting: Monday, January 26, 2015 4:30PM

Respectfully submitted,
